THE TAVERN KEEPERS' MEMORIAL .- The fol lowing is the memorial to the Washington Corporation authorities, presented last Monday by the rerailers of spirituous liquors :

The memorial of the undersigned, citizens and voters in the city aforesaid, respectfully represents:

That, in their opinion, the ordinances passed by the corporation aloresaid, touching the sale of spiritnous and other liquors, approved, respectively, on the 9th and 12th days of the present month of October, 1854, to take effect from the 6th proximo, are oppressive and unreasonable and ought to be reealed, modified, or suspended.

Your memorialists will not undertake to remark upon the validity of the said ordinances under the charter of the city and the Constitution of the United states, by the terms of which latter instrument the several grants of power in the former are to be tested These questions, upon which, as they are advised. the opinions of professional lawyers are divided, are proper to be considered and decided by the compe tent judicial tribunals to whom they may be regular ly presented for adjudication. They may be allowed however, to suggest that these ordinances are found ed upon a doubtful power.

Your memorialists submit that, even if the power were clear and indisputable, these ordinances are unreasonable and oppressive; because of a sudder in less than thirty days, they utterly destroy a large and profitable trade, (hitherto lawful,) in which great number of citizens have invested all their property, means, and credit, thereby—without rea-sonable warning, and in utter disregard of the hitherto lawful pursuits, interests, and rights of a large body of citizens suddenly uprooting all their at fairs, cutting them adrift upon society to seek new occupations (which are not so easy to be found.) forcing upon them the most ruinous sacrifices to meet their daily wants and those of their familiesleaving them hampered with leases, contracts for the purchase of liquors, agreements for salaries and for wages, and all the other natural and necessary incidents to the prosecution of a lawful busines which has been sanctioned, and, for the sake of revenue to the city, encouraged, from its foundation to the present time.

Your memorialists do not believe that any prece dent for such a sweeping and radical change, upon such short notice, can be found in the legislation of any country where principles of justice and a regard for the welfare of all the members of the commun ity a e understood and appreciated. The persons who are thus to be ruined are not criminals! No sane man will pronounce them so. whatever may be the extravagant notions of fanaticism. Conceding all the high moral attributes which belong to the "temperance cause," it must not b forgotten that this is a question of civil rights and o duties defined by law, and not of abstract specula-tions of the moralist. Have these men, by their occupation, committed any crime under the law hitherto? It must be admitted that they have not. Hith erto their business, by which they feed and clothe themselves, their wives, and their children, has been as lawful, and as much encouraged and protected by the law as yours, Mr. Mayor, or yours, gentlemen respectively, and each one of you in particular, who compose the legislative bodies by whom they are thus suddenly cast upon the streets without occupation, and many of them without the means of pro curing the next day's sustenance. Then they had a right to expect that, as the golden rule prescribes, you would not fail to concede to them what you would claim as just to yourselves. Is there one of you who would not denounce it as a monstrous injustice if a law should declare that within less thirty days your whole business should be pronounced unlawful, and your whole means and capital be unproductive, and your occupation gone Not one. Why? Because your occupations are doing so, let him point out the law or the ordinance mich has nitherto recognized the distinction. But it is not these persons alone who are to suffer Men in all trades and occupations in society are more or less connected together in interests If you reduce these particular individuals to bankruptcy by this sudden stoppage with all its trait of sacrifices, you thereby injure their honest creditors. Land-lords whose leases have been made on the faith of existing laws, and whose tenants must now evacuate their premises; clerks and servants who have been engaged for the year, and who must now be discharged and, in many cases, unpaid; merchants who have furnished fall supplies, trusting to future sales by the purchasers for payment; mechanics who have put up fixtures, made repairs; in short, all those who have contracted with these persons with the knowledge that their occupation was not prohibited, and with the pledge of common justice that it would not be suddenly and ruinously forbidden by law, must suffer losses, more or less, by the operation of But, when it is added to all this that the power to pass the ordinances in such sweeping terms of pro-nibition, is the subject of reasonable doubt, it seems to your memorialists the more urgent that the period of their going into effect be suspended for such a reasonable time as will enable the parties immediately affected by it to turn their resources into more favored channels, without the ruinous losses and sacrifices which must result from the edict which assigns to them a peremptory term of a few days for a radical change in all their affairs, occupations, property, plans, and prospects.

Your memorialists, therefore, respectfully pray your honorable bodies to take these views into consideration, and to pass such an ordinance as will prevent the wrongs and injuries which must otherwise be inflicted in the premises. And your memorialists will every pray, &c.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM .- The issues of the Trans Alleghany Bank, and those of the Bank of Kanawha

Virginia, are reported to have been refused payment. A merchant of this city, while in Baltimore yesterday, discovered that the rumor of their stopping payment was believed by the brokers there, who were re deeming the notes only so far as they had funds o these banks; so it will be well to look out for them-Our merchants and dealers who have been taking such paper, may find this hint worthy of their prompt The Exchange Bank, of this city, this morning we learn, exchanged an amount of their own issue for Trans-Alleghany notes. This is done by Messrs Selden, Withers & Co., under the new law of Vir ginia, requiring the issues to be secured by stock and countersigned by the State Treasurer.

GOING AHEAD .- On visiting, yesterday, the aban doned hotel of Col. John Foy, we found the work men busily engaged securing the foundation. Strong stone walls are being erected, well-seasoned timber laid on the bottom of the creek, and ample room given for the escape of all floods that may fill that

"Which once was goose creek, But is Tiber now."

The work is being done at the expense of the Corporation, and is being well done. While we were present, the dam which held the water of the creek from flowing on the workmen (who were laying stone, shovelling. &c.,) gave way, but that accident did not interrupt the go-ahead action of the hands for half an hour. We should judge by appearances that the work will be sufficiently done to admit of opening the hotel next month.

AN APPROPRIATE MARRIAGE.-A loving couple have just entered the united state of matrimony at the United States Hotel, an appropriate place for the " union of hearts and the union of hands, and hurrah for the union forever." The happy pair are T. L. Pleasants, Esq., and Mrs. M. A. White, both of Virginia. Punning aside, the ceremony was one of much interest, and is spoken of as such by all who had the pleasure to witness it. The groom may "Not vernal showers to budding flowers, Not Autumn to the farmer, So dear can be as thou to me, My fair, my lovely charmer!"

THE DELUGE AND A DELUGE OF PEOPLE.—The exhibition of the panorama, se graphically representing the duluge brought a deluge of people last even-ing to Odd Fellows' Hall. It was an exhibition most sublime, grand and beautiful. The vocaliza-tion of Miss Emmons, the blind vocalist, made a charming divertisement in the entertainment. Remember, it remains in this city until Saturday, af fording full opportunity to witness the resemblance of the greatest flood on record, of which Father Noah is the hero. It is exhibited at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and at 7% o'clock in the evening-an accom modation to all parties.

TRIBUTE TO ORPHANS .- Mrs. Margaret Lenox the respected mother of the late Mayor Lenox, has raised herself a monument in the affections of the parentiess, by contributing one thousand dollars to St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum. The trustees of the institution acknowledge the benevolent tribute with heartfelt thanks. It will be appropriated to the edu cation and support of the orphans. The trustees

may say—
"What can I pay thee for this noble usage,
But grateful praise! So Heaven itself is paid!"

REPAINTING THE PRESIDENT'S HOUSE,-Messrs. Parker & Spaulding commenced painting the White House this morning, and will have it beautifully white all over, in a short time. The President's House will therefore present a new appearance to the eyes of visitors and members of Congress, at the next gathering of the national legislative people Ladies National Magazine for November and their adjuncts, in Washington.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- Mr. John Keitly, a carpen ter, was severely injured on Tuesday by falling from a scaffold, used for building the new ship-house at the Navy Yard. We are gratified to learn that, though much injured, he is doing well.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT .- The New England Society, of Montreal, Canada, have informed the National Monument Association that it is their in-tention to contribute a block of grey limestone, with an appropriate inscription, for inscrtion in the mar-

SERVICE ST. SEP.

THE CASE OF DAVID BROTHERTON .- Mr. Brother. ton, of the Arlington House in this city, was cited to Baltimore on Tuesday, in relation to the attack upon him in that city on the late election day. The Sun says in regard to the matter: "It will be recollected that officer Plowmen, received an accidental wound in the hand, from a pistol in the possession of David Brotherton, at the Eighteenth Ward polls on the election day, and that two young men named Remby and McCurley were two young men named on the charge of acceptains subsequently arrested on the charge of assaulting Bro herton during the fracas which occurred, and injuring him very severely. At the instance of the other parties and their friends, and by permission of the State's officer, Brotherton consented to a dismissal of the cases, and the matter was subsequently (on Tuesday) amicably settled."

Mr. Brotherton tells us that out of kind feelings to the accused he agreed to the a rangement, as above announced, which included their giving a suit of clothes in place of those that were torn from his body by the assaulting party. He took measure for them, and came home tolerably satisfied with the result-but is almost an eye out in the affray.

INDIAN SUMMER .- We cannot record that the present beautiful weather constitutes the regular Indian Summer, but it is so much like it that we should receive it as such. The moon being far down South, we may expect such delightful weather till its full-after which nobody knows what the Clerk of the Weather may do.

A BOQUET FOR THE BALTIMORE PUBLIC SCHOOLS. Mr. Thomas Wall, assistant public gardener, sent to Baltimore yesterday, for the commencement of the Eastern Female High School, the most rich and becutiful boquet that could be presented there. It was composed of every flower that now blooms, freshly plucked, and is a tribute from Mr. Wall thankfully to be appreciated.

WHEREABOUTS OF THE ANGEL.-We find by an exchange paper that the Angel Gabriel made his first attempt at disturbing the peace, since leaving Washington jail, at New Haven, on Wednesday. The appearance of a policeman was the signal for him

BALL To-Night .- Such of our readers as may have a penchant for an interesting ball party, can take the boat, and be handsomely accommodated at the "Co and Co Club" ball, Alexandria, this evening. A charming fete is expected. WATCH RETURNS-A Sympathetic Case, &c .- The watch-house records exhibit for last night the cases of Thomas D. Smith, a "likely colored man," out after hours, who was sent to the work house for ninety days, in default of paying $10 fine, with costs, or giving bail. Patrick Farrel, drunk and disorderly, thirty days to work-house. Thomas Jones, a youth of about nine years, was brought in, badly beaten by his unnatural father. It appears that under the influence of strong drink, the father has been in the habit of much abusing the boy. He was very well pleased to be sent to the almshouse as a vagrant for ninety days (the best that Captain Birch could do for him) rather than remain with such a parent. The little unfortunate excited much sympathy, this morning, as he lay asleep, from the effects of the rough usage he had received. Are there no generous or benevolent people in Washington to take care of the abandoned boy? This morning, Justices Birch and Myers had before them, at the guard-house, a party of females who engaged in a free fight with one another, yesterday afternoon, on 4 % street, in the Seventh Ward The amazons are put down as Sarah Osborne and Louisa Buchanan, white; Isabella Penny and Ann M. alias Puss Crocket, colored. The white creatures lawful, and all previous legislation has encouraged and protected you in them. So it has been with these men. Let him distinguish who can: but in graceful to the parties implicated, calling for being routed from the neighberhood they distu bed.
